

LUNCH AT ALLEN'S

This is no songwriter's circle. Lunch At Allen's is an extraordinary musical revue by internationally renowned artists, Murray McLauchlan, Cindy Church, Marc Jordan, and Ian Thomas who perform together as a band – the show is an intimate and humorous performance by some of Canada's finest individual performers on stage as one.

It all began as a regular get together at Allen's in Toronto with Canadian music icon Murray McLauchlan and old friends Ian Thomas and Marc Jordan. After adding the voice of Cindy Church, a “lunch at Allen's” turned into an outstanding band who performs some of Canada's (and the worlds) most enjoyed songs from each of these songwriters' impressive catalogues.

Marc Jordan and Ian Thomas' songs have been recorded by everyone from Rod Stewart to Bette Midler, and Diana Ross to Santana. Murray McLauchlan's hits have covered Canadian airwaves from coast to coast. Cindy's (the sweetest) voice and songs are well known on the folk festival circuit through her solo work and as a member of Quartette with Sylvia Tyson. Together, it seems as though they've been playing for years with an energy and freshness like they've just met.

Each singer is accompanied by each other on a variety of instruments, vocal harmonies, laughs and a few tall tales in between.

Enjoy the irreverence of friends who make exceptional music together during a magical Lunch At Allen's. This is a truly wonderful show that leaves audiences feeling like they've experienced something very special.

i see.
